HADLEY'S ORIENT HOTEL

THERE IS NOTHING QUITE LIKE AN EVENT AT HADLEY'S

A very warm welcome to Hadley's Orient Hotel, especially as you explore our unique event spaces, menus, and experiences.

Since 1834 Hadley's Orient Hotel has stood in the heart of Hobart. Today, she proudly owns her place as providing one of Tasmania's most enduring and charming hospitality experiences.

It is my honour to lead our team as we go about making every occasion at Hadley's distinctive and memorable. Whether it is during dinner service or our traditional Afternoon Tea in the elegant Atrium, for breakfast, or in one of our unique event spaces,

I trust you will enjoy our genuine hospitality, quality food and beverages, and charming ambience. These elements are complemented by our elegant Orient Bar, which is the perfect place to enjoy a cocktail prior to dinner, have a quiet drink, or host your team or delegates to celebrate the success of your event.

I wish you the very best with organising your event, and on behalf of our whole team I welcome your interest in becoming a part of the living history of Hadley's Orient Hotel.

A TRULY UNIQUE EVENTS VENUE

Events have been held at Hadley's Orient Hotel since it opened in the 1800's. In fact, many Tasmanian organisations still active today were founded at meetings held at Hadley's.

Located in the heart of Hobart, Hadley's combines the charm of yesteryear with the modern conveniences of a contemporary boutique hotel and event venue. We are proud to present seven distinctive events spaces which include the audio-visual options you need to make your event a success.

Hadley's is a memorable venue to hold events such as:

- small conferences
- in-person and teleconference meetings
- private lunch or dinner
- group Afternoon Teas
- wedding ceremonies and receptions
- cocktail parties

Our team will work with you to tailor your event to meet your vision. With 71 hotel rooms and suites and a rich and authentic history, Hadley's truly is Hobart's most endearing boutique events venue.

LEADLIGHT ROOM

The classic Leadlight Room typifies Hadley's traditional style. Natural light floods in through the original 1910 curved leadlight ceiling showcasing Arts & Crafts design. This space is ideal for private dinners, meetings, or a group Afternoon Tea. Portable audio-visual equipment enables all your presentation requirements. During the annual Hadley's Art Prize this space transforms into a gallery.

OUR FAVOURITE ROOM SET: Perfect for a private dinner with up to 60 guests.

THE JOHN WEBB ROOM

The John Webb Room is Hadley's most flexible event space, located on the ground floor, it has gallery quality lighting, natural light via a central light well, and can be used for a range of meeting, presentation and dining styles.

Dedicated to a former owner, John Webb was a convict and talented confectioner who turned the then named Webb's Hotel into a destination.

OUR FAVOURITE SET: The John Webb Room works brilliantly for a theatre-style presentation of up to 90 people.

THE GEORGE CARTWRIGHT ROOM

The George Cartwright Room features high ceilings, heritage chandeliers, and views across Murray Street to St David's Cathedral. Portable audio-visual equipment allows this stunning space to be used for a range of meeting styles and social events.

Dedicated to George Cartwright who purchased the land on which Hadley's stands in 1830 and built a splendid house, a pastry shop and the Golden Anchor Inn.

OUR FAVOURITE ROOM SET: A wonderful space to hold an elegant cocktail party.

THE MARY HADLEY ROOM

The Mary Hadley Room sits in the heart of Hadley's. Along with the Atrium, it is the location for our signature breakfast served daily. We serve delegate lunches here, and sumptuous private luncheons. At night, our hotel dinner service may overflow into Mary Hadley, or perhaps a private dinner.

Dedicated to Mary Hadley, a trailblazer of the hotel world. She was entrusted by her parents to run the newly named Hadley's Orient Hotel.

OUR FAVOURITE ROOM SET: Delegates love the ambience and space of Mary Hadley for lunch, with catering and tables set to suit each event.

THE ATRIUM

The remarkable, light-filled Atrium is one of Tasmania's most famous spaces. It hosts Hadley's breakfast and dinner services daily and Afternoon Tea service Friday to Sunday each week. For very special occasions, the Atrium is available to use as an event space, most often for a cocktail party of up to 90 people or a wedding ceremony of up to 80 guests. Use of the Atrium is limited by normal hotel operations. Regular dinner reservations can be made in advance for groups of up to 16.

OUR FAVOURITE SET: Enjoying dinner or Afternoon Tea in the Atrium is an experience in itself, but when making an impression counts, we recommend the Atrium for a cocktail party of up to 90 guests.

AFTERNOON TEA

Afternoon Tea has been an English tradition since the mid-1800s when the introduction of lighting meant the wealthy could dine well into the evening.

One of Queen Victoria's ladies-in-waiting, the seventh Duchess of Bedford, Anna Maria Russell, began requesting a tray of tea, sandwiches and small cakes to tide her over while waiting for the evening meal. At first, she enjoyed this privately in her room, but she soon began to invite friends to join her.

The idea of pausing for an afternoon tea with friends quickly became fashionable, so much so that it prompted a change of attire to long gowns, hats and gloves, and service in the drawing room.

Afternoon Tea at Hadley's draws on this tradition, with treats inspired by Mrs Beeton and fresh local produce.

Dietary requirements can be accommodated on request at the time of booking.

Per person prices include room hire. Audio-visual equipment is available to hire.

OUR FAVOURITE WEDDINGS: The Atrium, flooded with light and beautifully decorated is an amazing place for your ceremony, and opening the doors between the Leadlight Room and the Mary Hadley Room creates the ultimate reception venue.

HADLEY'S ART PRIZE

Hadley's has a long history interwoven with art dating back to the 1800's.

Early landlord John Hadley collected and exhibited artworks in the late nineteenth century, as did his son, Howard Hadley – who was himself an award-winning landscape painter. The twentieth century saw significant exhibitions held at Hadley's.

Inaugurated in 2017, the annual Hadley's Art Prize celebrates excellence in contemporary landscape art, promotes cultural tourism in Tasmania, and restores art to the historic walls of Hadley's Orient Hotel through a landscape prize like Howard Hadley won in 1895.

The Hadley's Art Prize attracts leading artists from across Australia. The exhibition of finalists brings a rich and diverse range of artworks to be viewed in our unique galleries with stunning heritage features.

Hadley's also presents temporary exhibitions throughout the year, featuring small sculptural works, paintings, textiles and other media, most of which connect with the hotel's history.

Exhibitions at Hadley's celebrate the work of contemporary artists and enrich our event spaces, sharing art to be enjoyed by all.

“The lucrative Hadley's Art Prize and in-house temporary exhibitions rekindle the hotel's long history with art and enliven our events spaces, making unique and memorable settings.”

Dr Amy Jackett

CURATOR OF HADLEY'S ART PRIZE

IN-GALLERY EVENTS

In addition to a series of scheduled events, Hadley's is excited to offer exclusive opportunities to enjoy an evening event in the Hadley's Art Prize galleries during the finalist's exhibition. Choose between a private cocktail party or sit-down dinner for a minimum of 16 people.
